

In Japan, there is a culture called Setsubun, in which people scatter beans to ward off demons and pray for good health. Therefore, demons are generally treated as bad guys, but in Kinugawa Onsen, demons are cherished as local guardian deities. At Kinugawa Onsen, events related to demons are held. Why not visit to feel the deep Japanese culture?

Kinugawa Onsen ONI Festival
Nikko, Japan

Jan.21-Feb.28
 (Sat.) (Tue.)

Kinugawa Onsen Kinuhime Festival

Feb.1-Mar.31
 (Wed.) (Fri.)

Kinuhime (Princess Kinu) Festival is a Hinamatsuri(Hina Doll Festival) event held at Kinugawa-Kawaji Onsen every year. Each of the lovely Hina doll displays and hanging Hina dolls is handcrafted and made with devotion. Come right ahead and experience the arrival of spring.

NIKKO CITY TOURISM ASSOCIATION

<http://www.nikko-kankou.org/> <https://www.facebook.com/nikko1525/>